

COME ON DOWN!!!!

By Nan Fry

Rainbow Seniors of Western New York (RSWNY) is hosting many great events in the coming months. All of them are open to GLBTIQ community and are drug and alcohol free.

Sunday, MARCH 19, 4 p.m.

1st Universalist Church, 150 S. Clinton Ave., corner of Court St. (parking on Court)

Intergenerational Panel: “When We Knew.” A distinguished group of 6-8 panelists including Bill Pritchard, Chris Wilson, and members of the GAGV Youth Group will speak about their GLBTIQ beginnings and where they are today. The discussion will be followed by a pizza social. Please bring a salad or a dessert. This is a popular yearly event, don’t miss it!

Saturday, MARCH 25, 10 a.m.-noon

1st Universalist Church, 150 S. Clinton Ave., corner of Court St. (parking on Court)

Memory Myths & Memory Tips – Can’t remember where you parked your car at the grocery store? You’re not alone! Come join Dr. Silvia Sorenson of the University of Rochester Medical Center to learn more about how memory works and simple things we can do to exercise our memory muscles.

Saturday, MAY 13, 5:30-10:00 p.m.

Roger Robach Center, Ontario Beach Park

DANCE! DANCE! DANCE! We’re doing it again! Come join the fun at our Spring Fling on the shores of Lake Ontario. Enjoy music by Chuck Argento. Tickets are $10 in advance and $12 at the door and are available from Rainbow Seniors, Pride Connection, and Outlandish.
