March 2004

Important note about our March 21 potluck/Intergenerational Panel

At 4:00 p.m. we'll host the Intergenerational Panel comprised of 7 GLBT individuals, representing various generations, who will speak about their lives. Bring your questions and come see the changes in our lives over the decades! The panel will be sign language interpreted. Then at 5:30 p.m., after the panel, we've invited members of the GAGV Youth Group to dine with us. Pizza will be the main course, so if you can, please bring a salad or dessert.

Set up and clean up for our March get together

For the March meeting, we're asking people with last names beginning A-G to assist with set up and H-M to assist clean up. It was great to see us working together last month at Peace Lutheran as we all cleaned up! Thank you for your help-the Board is grateful not to have to do it all!

Ongoing changes in our potluck get togethers

Beginning with our March potluck, please bring your own own beverage (non alcohol) to our events. And, if you're so inclined, feel free to bring your own plate and silverware. Although we'll have paper products available at each meeting, bringing reusable tableware helps keep our potluck expenses to a minimum. Also, if you have a few paper plates or plastic silverware at home that you aren't using, we'd be happy to have them.

A special thank you...

Heartfelt thanks to the anonymous donor who donated $25 to Peace Lutheran last month for our use of this new space.

Information about marriage equality

The GAGV's town meeting and rally both emphasized the urgency of working toward marriage equality now. Board members DeeDee Corcigmilia, Sherlea Dony, Bob Hammond, Don Hoyt, and Marilyn Mitchell were present at one or both events. If you're interested in discussing this issue further, feel free to approach any of them. We may take some time at one of our upcoming get togethers to provide you with more in-depth information on this important issue, and we'll have information available at the March 21 potluck.
