

Promoting and addressing life issues affecting the general welfare of older gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, and intersex (GLBTI) individuals

The Rainbow Seniors Newsletter

October 2005

Attention ghosts and goblins!

Join us for our Halloween costume contest on Sunday, October 16! You could be a 1st, 2nd, or 3rd place prize winner! No special menu for this event unless you know the favorites of witches and warlocks! And we'll also be collecting donations for holiday baskets.

You'll be there, right?

Secret auction items are sure to please, and the music is guaranteed to get you're your toes tapping, if not get you right out on the dance floor! Don't miss our biggest fundraiser yet, our secret auction and dance on Saturday, November 12, at the Roger Robach Community Center, Ontario Beach Park. We need volunteers to help sell tickets and to work at the auction and dance. Please contact Nan Fry, 585.544.2633, nan_fry@rainbowseniorswny.org if you can help.

Jewish Home reaches out to us

The Jewish Home contacted us about their adult day care program, which Medicaid will reimburse in full. They also wanted to let us know that they are an ally to our community. Clients who attend the day-care program range from people with hypertension to developmental disabilities to mental health issues. The program includes pet therapy, trips, Red Hat Society celebrations, and hot meals. It's a great option for caregivers needing a day or more of respite. For more information, contact Sherlea, 585.544.2633, sherlea_dony@rainbowseniorswny.org.

RSWNY to co-sponsor an ImageOut film

Rainbow Seniors has been invited again this year to co-sponsor a film about older GLBTIQ individuals. "When I'm 64" will be shown at the Little Theatre on October 12 at 5:30 p.m. Don't miss it!

Don't forget... .

If you'd like a copy of our monthly Board meeting minutes or the Annual Report, all you need to do is ask one of the Board members. We're happy to share. And, Board meetings are always open to the general membership. Meetings are from 2-3:30 p.m., immediately prior to our potluck get togethers.

Rainbow Traders

Do you enjoy reading? If so, check out the Rainbow Traders group that meets on the 2nd Tuesday of the month, 11 a.m., at Sandra and Ginny's house. Swap books (paperbacks preferred), and then head out for lunch together. Any books not traded at this time will be brought to our monthly potlucks for those who couldn't make the official trading meetings on Tuesdays. Call 585.473.4765 for more details.
