The Rainbow Seniors of Western New York Newsletter

It's Gay Pride Month in Rochester

- Saturday, July 8, 5 p.m., Gay Pride Parade, '60s theme, "Flower Power in the Flower City." We're hoping for a great turnout of Rainbow Seniors who will ride or walk. Wear '60s clothes if you have 'em. Call Paul Mykins if you plan to walk or ride in the parade at paul_mykins@rainbowseniorswny.org, 585.427.9292 (leave msg). Parade vehicles will line up on Brunswick St., corner Park Ave. between 3:30-4 p.m. Parade starts at 5 p.m. We have 3 cars for those who prefer to ride. The parade is a blast—join us!
- Sunday, July 9, noon-6 p.m., Community Pride Picnic. Rainbow Seniors will have a display table in the organization pavilion—come visit us! And, if you need a ride to the picnic, please contact Sherlea at 585.544.2633, sherlea_dony@rainbowseniorswny.org, to make arrangements.
- Sunday, July 16, 4 p.m., RSWNY monthly potluck, 1st Universalist Church, 150 S. Clinton Ave., corner of Court St. Please bring a fruit platter or a fruit desert...or a salad of pasta or potato for our "Summer Fun" theme.

Welcome New and Returning Board Members

Thanks to everyone who came to the June potluck to cast your vote at our annual election. We were surprised and delighted at the turnout, despite the heat and humidity! The new Board is as follows:

- Sherlea Dony, President
- Don Hoyt, Vice President
- Marilyn Mitchell, Secretary
- Barb Bonin, Treasurer
- Pam Barres, Paul DiSanto, Bob Hammond, Scott LaCombe, Paul Mykins, Charles Palmatier, MJ Tower, and John Wicks, Members at Large

Special thanks to John VanOrman, who recently stepped down as a Member at Large. We thank John for his service and plan to see him regularly in a general member/volunteer role. John's the person who sends out cards to our members.

Mark Your Calendars For Our Next Dance!

Our next dance will be on Saturday, October 28, at the Roger Robach Center. Details to follow!
